ALLOWANCE

1. Response to Request for Continued Examination (RCE) filed on 3/27/2006.

Drawings

2. The corrected drawings were received on 2/28/2006. These drawings are accepted by the examiner.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-9 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: claims 1 and 2 are allowed over the art of record because the prior art does not teach or suggest a residual current detection circuit comprising means for detecting an imbalance current indicative of a residual current by providing an output simultaneously to two channels wherein the first channel provides a first signal while the amplitude of the output exceeds a predetermined level and the second channel provides a second signal wherein the application of the second signal is delayed with respect to the application of the first signal to a circuit stage, whereby produces an output only when the applied first and second signals are coincident and only if the duration of the first signal is greater than the delay in the application of the second signal.

Claims 3-9 are allowable as their base claims are allowable for the above reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to John Zhu whose telephone number is (571) 272-5920. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F, 8-4:30.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Diane Lee can be reached on (571) 272-2399. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
